LOOK OUT FOR THE WOLF.—We notice that one A. E. Redstone is traveling around the State organizing what he calls a Workingmen's party, under some sort of secret pledges, which it is pretended is to act by itself as a political party. We caution real workingmen against this Redstone. His home is at Vallejo, and the Democrat of that town says of him:

"So far as we have been able to learn, he has had no occupation for a long time save in making himself very busy in re-organizing the force on the Navy Yard for the purpose of electing a Radical from this District to Congress. It will not be denied that he is a prominent member of the proscription Union League in this city."

The Union League has made itself conspicuous by preventing Democratic workmen from obtaining work at Mare Island, and so has Redstone, the pretended organizer of the Workingmen's party. He is now evidently playing into the hands of those who have been engaged in proscribing workmen for opinion's sake, and his object is undoubtedly to entrap Democratic workmen into a position where they may be by their pledges be compelled to vote for Radical men and Radical measures, including Chinese and Chinese suffrage. But Democratic workmen are too intelligent to be humbugged by any Stone, be he black, yellow or red.—Reporter.

Where this man Redstone is known his exertions will not be conducive of much harm to the Democratic party. As we are personally acquainted with him, we can speak knowingly of him, and without fear of contradiction. He is one of those peculiar geniuses who believes in the superiority of the negro and Mongolian races, and who, while pretending to be a workingman, never did anything in the shape of honorable labor when he could avoid it, preferring rather to sit around cheap groceries and tell his remarkable adventures in the secret service of the United States, and the like and claiming, three years ago, to still be in the same line of business. At this very same time, however, his noble little wife was selling needlework, and other trinkets, made by her own hands, to furnish herself and offspring, and perhaps her lazy lord, too, with the necessities of life. Taking it all in all, we think he is eminently fitted to lead a Radical labor movement or any kindred dodge of the Radicals.

[COMMUNICATED]
BUCHANAN, Dec. 2nd, 1870.

ED. EXPOSITOR.—Please, through your next issue, give Buchanan a puff. L. Dennis, having returned from below with a large stock of goods, is now open for competition with any store in Fresno, or any other man, in the line of dry goods, groceries, and "rot." His store has been newly and neatly fitted up for the reception of goods and customers. L. H. P. Smith is also fitting up. John Brown, our worthy hotel man, is getting ready for a Christmas ball. Our school teacher is also getting ready for a school festival, the time of coming off of which I will let you know. A new blacksmith shop has also been started, by Wilcox & McKenzie, who will be ready to do all kinds of work in their line. So you see we are not going down hill; there is also a prospect of the mines starting work here next spring. That, combined with the circumstance of the railroad running within a few miles of this place, would make town lots rise rapidly in value, and Buchanan would be one of the most flourishing towns in Fresno county.

RUSSIA'S PREPARATIONS.—It has been generally stated in the press that Russia is in a poor state of preparation for war, says the San Francisco Call, and that both the army and the navy are in an extremely unsatisfactory condition for hostilities on a grand scale. But persons familiar with that country say that the other nations will be surprised to learn the completeness of her naval and military preparations. Several first class war steamers, carrying from thirty to forty guns each, are on the Pacific coast, and can be ready to sail at short notice to attack English commerce in Chinese waters. The port of Possyette, on the coast of Manchuria, is thoroughly fortified and fully equipped as a naval station, and connected with St. Petersburg by telegraph. The army has been thoroughly reorganized in the past five years, and a large force is now in or near the Black Sea.

In Alabama the old Governor and State Treasurer, both refuse to give up their offices to their Democratic competitors who defeated them at the late election. A late dispatch announces that they have called upon the military to sustain them in their positions. Grant will probably furnish them a few thousand soldiers.

THE LOTTERY MANIA.

The virtual repealing of the law against lotteries by the Legislature of last Winter, by reason of granting the Mercantile Library Association the privilege of abrogating it, has started up an innumerable number of schemes in different parts of the State. Nevada City took the lead, then Siskiyou followed, and now Grass Valley and Marysville are out with a drawing each, while several other localities have got an itching to try their hand; even Calaveras county wants to go into the business. She wants to pay off her indebtedness by means of a lottery. But all at once a moral streak seems to have shot across the minds of many of the supporters and advocates of the great San Francisco gaming enterprise, and they are holding up their hands in holy horror and are crying out with loud voices against "this great and growing evil." Their "bull is being gored." The country is to reap the benefit now. Blood is to be drawn from San Francisco, the stomach of the State. That won't do. San Francisco wants to do all the dancing and is only willing to give the country the privilege of paying for the music.

It is only a few days since a man was arrested in San Francisco for advertising a lottery only, and this, too, before Bro. Swain has fairly recovered from the hoarseness occasioned by his Scriptural readings, at the Mercantile Library drawing. If that ain't getting good all over mighty quick, we would like to know it. The strong arm of the law is appealed to for protection against these monstrous evils. The question now is, "Is there any law to prevent lotteries?" The Constitution of the State provides that, "All laws of a general nature shall have a uniform operation." The gambling law is a general one, and the common public opinion is that the Act of the Legislature setting aside the law in one instance was a simple nullification of the law. The question will be tested in court.

WHO GOT THE MONEY?—About $10,000 was collected, says the San Francisco Examiner, by forced levy from the Government employees at the Mint and Custom House in this city, for the purpose of assisting to carry the State of Nevada for the Radical party at the recent election. The employees paid the money; that much is certain; and now the question is, who got it? The Territorial Enterprise, upon the authority of the Republican State Central Committee of Nevada, denies that the Committee asked for or received one dollar of this money. If the money had been expended for the purposes for which it was collected, the outrage of the forced levy and collection would have been a mere bit of political rascality venial under the Radical code of morals; but that this money should have been pocketed by prominent Radical officials (and as it was not used in Nevada this is a legitimate inference), is morally as much a crime as was the attack and robbery of the Central Railroad train by Nevada highwaymen. No wonder that Government employees revolt at forced levies when the money collected is used upon individual instead of political account. The Collector of the Port and Superintendent of the Mint know, or can find out, what became of this money; and if they fail to do so and to make the matter public, their conduct will only strengthen, even confirm, the suspicion that the money was appropriated—polite for stolen—by some of the Radical Tycoons of this coast.

BEET SUGAR.—Almost simultaneously, says the Call, with the success of the experiment in beet sugar making at Alvarado, comes the intelligence of a similar and no less gratifying triumph at Chatsworth, Ill. A splendidly fitted out establishment for the manufacture of sugar from beet roots has been in existence there for several years, with the latest and most improved machinery from Germany and France, brought over and fitted up at a cost of little less than $300,000; but all attempts at practically making sugar from the vegetable have proven failures up to the present season. Several hundred acres of land belonging to the establishment have been planted in beets, and the best available skill has been employed, an experienced and intelligent Superintendent imported from Germany; but some obstacle has always interposed to prevent the experiment from becoming completely successful. The proprietors were discouraged, and were about giving up in despair; their foreign managers were discharged, and they considered their experiment a failure, but concluded to try just once more, and last Spring they put an old Illinois farmer in charge, and the result is a quality of sugar which, when put upon the market at Chicago without brand, to secure an impartial test, was graded by the best experts at New York sugar, and readily brought the price of the article. Experiments in Wisconsin and Michigan bid fair, we understand, to realize similar results. The indications are that this industry will become permanently domesticated in this country.

DIED.

In Millerton, November 26, 1870, MARY MARTHA HELM, only child of JAMES, and the late MARY MARTHA HELM, aged 6 months and 22 days.

"Suffer little children to come unto me," words of ineffable sweetness and divine love, uttered by the dear Redeemer, come stealing o'er our hearts—stricken with deep sorrow—and afford an inexhaustible store of comfort; pointing us from the little, flower strewn coffin, with its dreamless sleeper, away to the heavenly fold, where the Tender Shepherd gathers the lambs in His arms, and carries them in His bosom. Her illness was brief. Her disease had quenched the light of her bright eye, or pal'd the rose tint on her cheek, "the silver chord was loosened." Parents have the consolation that when they are bereft of all that made life most dear, that beyond the dark river the light shines forever, and though life's sorrows are many, God's love is unchanged.

A FRIEND.

At Fort Miller, near Millerton, December 1st, 1870, ALICE ANNETTE, infant daughter of ALVIN and ELIZA MURPHY, aged 27 days.

The Saviour when on this earth "took little children in His arms and blessed them and said of such is the kingdom of heaven." "I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: even so saith the spirit; for they rest from their labors." "That lovely form, tho' it return to dust, God shall bid it rise to be reunited with its happy spirit in heaven forever to enjoy immortal and eternal life.

Lovely baby, how brief thy stay;
Short and hasty was thy day;
Ending soon thy journey here,
Pain and grief no more to bear.

Hard it is from thee to part,
For it rends the aching heart;
But an heir of glory's gone,
Let the will of God be done.

Pillowed on a Saviour's breast,
Sweetly sleep and softly rest;
Soon the morning shall restore,
The buried babe we now deplore.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

GONE AND DONE IT!—Red Sanderson, he that presideth so well over the principal hotel at Kingston, has went and gone and got married, and never told us a word about it. We thought the last time that we saw him that there was something wrong. He wasn't putting as much water in his whiskey as formerly, and put on a clean shirt regularly once a month, and was talking of having his life insured. What weeping and wailing, and gnashing of teeth there was among the "boys" when they learned that one of their number had been so suddenly taken from their midst. Peace to him! May he never be annoyed with broomsticks, milliners' bills, nor curtain lectures, but live to a good old age, and raise a numerous family to gladden his departing years.

BABY COMMITTEE.—At a meeting of the citizens interested in the New Year's ball, held on last Friday evening, to appoint committees to supervise different details of the party, it was decided that, as there would probably be a great number of ladies attend the ball with small babies, a committee of experienced gentlemen be appointed to take charge of the little fellows, so as to give the mothers a chance to dance, and the following gentlemen were appointed, viz: E. J. Hildreth, Esq., Capt. R. P. Moore, Judge C. A. Hart, and Mr. W. W. Hill. Great care was taken to select men of experience for this most responsible committee.

THE NEW YEAR'S BALL.—The citizens' New Year's Ball, to come off on Monday evening, January 2d, promises to be the grandest affair Millerton has ever known. The services of Messrs. Mickle and Myers have been engaged to discourse music on the occasion, and the supper will be tip-top. Everything will be done to make it pleasant, and the public is invited to attend without money and without price.

VALUABLE HORSE DIED.—We learn that Mr. M. Donahoe, our worthy Supervisor, had the misfortune to lose a very valuable animal on last Sunday night. It is supposed it was poisoned by eating some poisonous weed. As scarcely a day passes without some animal dying in a similar manner, it would seem that it was well nigh time that the cause was discovered.

FESTIVAL AND DANCING PARTY.—We learn that our friends, the good citizens of Buchanan school district, are going to have a party on Friday evening, Dec. 23rd, in aid of their school. The object is a good one, and we hope their entertainment will be an immense success.

HEAVY RAIN.—About half-past five o'clock on Monday evening the rain began falling in this vicinity in real old fashioned style and continued till after midnight. In one hour, from ten till eleven o'clock P. M., over one inch of water was caught in an ordinary water bucket, placed on the ground, away from any building.

We learn that our friend Mr. W. C. Caldwell contemplates giving a social party at his hotel in Centerville Thursday evening of next week. The fact of Mr. Caldwell's being at the head of the affair, is a sufficient guarantee that it will be most pleasant.

PARTIES who have subscribed to the New Year's Ball will find the subscription list in the hands of Mr. Otto Froelich, and they may make immediate payment if they desire so to do, and any who may wish to subscribe will find plenty of room to do so by applying.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—We have heard it incidentally stated that a temperance lecture will be delivered in this town, at the Court House, on next Saturday evening, but whether it will be public or not we do not know.

RELIGIOUS.—We learn that henceforth, on every other Sabbath, a minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian denomination will preach at the Court House in this place, commencing with next Sabbath.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the Post Office from November 1st to December 1st, 1870: W. W. Christy, John M. Herron, John E. Morrow, A. B. Moore, John Paden, J. P. Ridgeway, J. B. Ross.

PLOWING.—The rains of the past week have moistened the driest lands in the county sufficiently for plowing, and in the majority of instances has made the ground too wet.

HOLIDAYS.—Our friend, Mr. Otto Froelich, has on hand, we notice, quite an assortment of toys, and other holiday presents for the little folks.

BOUGHT OFF.—The opposition stage—the mail line—has been bought off and henceforth Mr. Bennett will accommodate the public by carrying the mail for it.

RAIN.—This section has been supplied during the past week with bountiful showers of rain, and the grass crops may now be considered almost assured.

RAISED AT LAST.—The rains of last week brought the river up a little, enough, we think, to put a quietus on river mining for this season.

MIGHTY NICE.—Tom Allen is fixing up his place mighty nice. He is repainting, repapering, and renovating generally.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute for Fresno county is to be organized at Centerville this week we learn.

The stages now connect with the cars at Modesto.

We suppose the best stories of odd incidents in the career of ministers are told by clergymen themselves. Imagine yourself listening to a grave Methodist preacher who spoke of having once passed a night at a rough house in the country, and just before going to bed, suggested the propriety of reading a chapter in the Bible and family prayer. The man in the house, after a hasty search, could find only a couple of torn leaves of the good book, which he laid on the table, with the remark: "I really didn't know I was so near out of the Bible."

In addition to an admirable medical treatise in the causes prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive calendar.

The nature, uses, and extraordinary sanitary effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—the staple tonic and alterative of more than one half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. Send for copies to the nearest dealer in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The BITTERS are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

ADDRESS TO

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,

WHOSE SUFFERINGS

HAVE BEEN

Protracted from Hidden Causes,

AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE

to Render Existence Desirable.

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or docty, or is itropy on setting? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does anything make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eyes as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as much as formerly? Do you feel much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and tend have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia, or liver complaint?

NOW, READER,

self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men, are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health.

MAKE THE MAN.

DID YOU EVER THINK

You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they do not become sad and discouraged; they are always pleasant and polite in the society of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other meannesses about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—

spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease with humanity to their lot, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

SPIRITS OF AMMONIA.—A lady writer in the Hearth and Home says: Sisters in household labors, have you any idea what a very useful thing ammonia is to have in the house? If not, give your maiden of all work fifteen cents and an empty pint bottle at once, and send her to the first drug store for a supply. Tell her to be sure to get the spirits of ammonia; it is the same as hartshorn, but if she asks for that they'll give her for the fifteen cents a few drops in a smelling bottle not as big as her thumb. While she's gone, I'll tell you how to use it. For washing paint, put a tablespoonful in a quart of moderately hot water, dip in a flannel cloth, and with this simply wipe off the wood-work; no scrubbing will be necessary. For taking grease spots from any fabric, use the ammonia nearly pure, then lay white blotting paper over the spot and iron it lightly. In washing lace put about twelve drops in a pint of warm suds. To clean silver, mix two teaspoonfuls of ammonia in a quart of hot soapsuds, put in your silverware and wash it, using an old nail brush or tooth brush for the purpose. For cleaning hair brushes, etc., simply shake the brushes up and down in a mixture of one teaspoonful of ammonia to one pint of hot water, when they are cleaned, rinse them in cold water and stand them in a window or in a hot place to dry. For washing finger marks or windows, put a few drops of ammonia on a moist rag and make quick work of it. If you wish your house plants to flourish put a few drops of the spirits in every pint of water used in watering. A teaspoonful in a basin of cold water will add much to the refreshing effects of a bath; nothing is better than ammonia water for cleansing the hair. In every case, rinse off the ammonia with clear water. Ammonia is used as a rising in cake making, etc., but I cannot recommend it for that purpose; and ten drops in a wine glass of water is said to be an excellent remedy for headache and acidity of the stomach, but I don't believe in newspaper doctoring and so will not endorse the remedy. However, for a score of fair and square, needed practical household purposes, spirits of ammonia is invaluable, and I'm not afraid to proclaim it. Farmers and chemists are profound concerning the native article in its free state and admit all its important service in the economy of nature; but farmer's wives throughout the country really know very little of the manifold uses that can be made of a pint of the spirits, kept in the house, bottled and labelled. I say emphatically labelled, because its a sin not to have all such things so conspicuously marked that no mistake need occur. Let me add here, by way of caution, that ammonia directly applied, is not good for the eyes. It has a way of melting them that is anything but agreeable.

SHADE FOR COWS.—Milch cows should be provided with shade or shelter during the hottest part of the day. They will pay you for this in the greater flow of milk. They should have access to water two or three times a day. Not only two or three times a day, but at their pleasure; and no field is suitable for pasture that does not have an abundance of shade trees, which, if not native and to the manner born, should be planted or set at once.

DIVORCED.—Mrs. Brannan has been divorced from her husband, Sam Brannan of San Francisco. She secures an equal division of the common property which is valued at over a million dollars, and is encumbered with debts amounting to over four hundred thousand dollars.

THE WAY A COLORADO DEACON LAID UP TREASURES IN HEAVEN is thus touchingly recorded on his tombstone: "When circumstance rendered it impossible for him attend the stated preaching of the gospel, he made it a stated rule to kill an Indian every Sabbath."

AN IMPORTANT IRRIGATION SCHEME.

The projected King's River Irrigation Ditch, of which we made a brief mention some days ago, deserves a more extended notice. We are assured that work is to be commenced without delay, and that the preliminaries of locating the line at the head of the ditch, securing a right to the water, and obtaining the right of way for portions of the route, have already been attended to. King's river is one of the large streams that rise in that part of the Sierra Nevada known as the Californian Alps. Its branches extend from 36 deg., 30 min., to 37 deg., 40 min.; it strikes the low land of the Tulare Valley about 36 deg., 40 min., and it empties into Tulare Lake, of which it is one of the main feeders. It derives its waters mainly from the melting of the snows, which do not disappear about its head until late in August or September, except in some of the deepest gorges of the Northern slopes where some snow lies throughout the year. We are not aware that any measurement has been made of the size of the stream when full in May and June, and when there would be the most demand for irrigation; but Mr. Lowe, the contractor, informs us that on the first of September last the stream was 100 feet wide and 6 feet deep in places where the grade was five feet to the mile, and this, he says, is equal to 86,400 inches of miners' measure; and that again is equal to 800,000,000 gallons daily, or a hundred times as much as San Francisco receives from the Spring Valley and Lobos Creek aqueducts. Before the middle of October this quantity had decreased; but Mr. Lowe thinks a depth of three feet with a width of 100 on a grade of five feet to the mile can be obtained at the lowest season, exclusive of the amount to which prior claimants, who have old ditches for supplying their farms, are entitled.

The ditch is to start in section 29, township 13 south, range 23 east, of the United States surveys, and is to run westward and south-westward by various branches to Fresno Slough and the San Joaquin river, and perhaps across to the eastern side of the valley, where water is more needed than at the west. Fortunately for the company undertaking the work, there are several old channels, into which the water can be turned, and which will serve as well as would artificial canals. These channels start near the point where King's river issues from the mountains, and were, no doubt, the beds of that stream at various times. The elevation of the head of the canal above the level of Fresno Slough, which extends from Tulare Lake to the bend of the San Joaquin river, has not been measured, but it is estimated to be from 200 to 500 feet. The fall in the first six miles of the projected canal is 65 feet; the natural banks of the river at the proposed dam are nine feet high, and the excavation need not extend more than 2,000 feet, for at that distance the natural level of the land is below that of the starting point. Though no work has yet been done at ditching, there are many miles of channel ready for use, but as they are about 25 feet deep for much of the way, they could be used for irrigating only by taking out side-ditches and running them for a considerable distance, to reach the top of the banks, from which the land slopes off to the north and south. They can be used, however, for floating building timber and firewood, which are abundant near the head of the canal, and in demand in the lowland. Thirty miles east of the canal head there are immense forests of pine and fir, much of which can be floated down the river with little trouble.

The length of the route in a due west line to the Fresno Slough is about fifty miles, passing most of the way through a soil of sandy loam, very fertile, but also very dry in ordinary seasons. The old channels of King's river run through land reserved for the Southern Pacific Railroad, and also through a considerable area owned by Friedlander, Chapman, and their associates. Much of the land near the head of the canal is still open to settlers at $1 25 per acre, and the even sections in the railroad reservation extending across the valley are offered at $3 50. About forty miles of the San Joaquin Valley Railroad are now in running order, but the distance for teaming is still too great to leave much room for profit on agricultural produce generally sent from Tulare Valley. When the cars run to Visalia, however, we may expect that district to wake up, and many thousand acres of land, now almost worthless, will then be in demand.

Much may be done in our State without irrigation, but much more with it; and it is indispensable for the proper development of the agricultural resources of the San Joaquin Valley, which is blessed with a wide area of level and fertile, though very dry soil, and with an almost inexhaustible store of snow near at hand, ready to melt and run down to the places where and at the times when most needed. The King's River Irrigating Ditch can, with proper management, become a great benefit to the State, and we trust the company and the contractor will be ready before another year rolls around to supply a wide area of land with water which, in the drier climates, is the main want of agriculture and other industries.—Daily Examiner.

STOCKTON SHIP CANAL.—The engineers having surveyed the route of this proposed work, make no doubt of its entire feasibility, while the cost will be much less than the original estimate. The total cost of excavation, it is computed, will not exceed $750,000 and the locks will be unnecessary, unless direct communication is made with Stockton slough, which may be deemed inadvisable. If completed the proposed work will reclaim and make valuable large tracts of swamp lands now useless for productive purposes and will besides contribute largely to the prosperity of Stockton and vicinity.

The bed of the Seine below Paris contains a large rock, called the speaking stone by the people. Only in times of the greatest droughts this rock becomes visible and it has appeared above the surface now again for the first time since the terrible year of 1755, the year in which the earthquake of Lisbon took place and the seven years' war began. It is called the speaking rock, because the following words have been chiseled into it: "Those who have seen me have wept, and those who will see me will weep."

If the negro party affects the Radical party throughout the country as it has the State of Nevada, it is likely to prove a bitter pill to the Radicals. From 300 to 350 votes of this description were estimated in this State. The Radical majority two years ago was over 1,200. Adding this 300 to that majority and we have to exceed 1,500 votes to overcome in this election. Bradley's majority of about 1000 shows the magnitude of the political revolution.

I MET her by the seller door; the look she gave me was cold and stern; her eyes looked pitchforks into mine, and mine looked pitchforks into hers. For we had loved in days gone by; and her daddy said that I might take her; but, alas, for my dream of wedded bliss, she got up and got with a Dutch shoemaker. No more girls for me if I know it; no more fronds my love to dim; in the words of the poet, "Not for Joseph; and he might have added, 'Not for Jim."

HOWE MACHINE COMPANY'S WORLD RENOWNED SEWING MACHINES!

Paris Exposition Universelle, 1867.

TWO GRAND PRIZES, GRAND CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR.

To Elias Howe, Jr., as Inventor, And Gold Medal for THE BEST SEWING MACHINE.

Highest Honors ever Conferred FOR SEWING MACHINES.

THE Machine which bears his name has long been regarded as the standard of excellence, and has become celebrated the world over. The work done by these Machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest muslin or the thickest cloth, with equal facility; and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness of material. It is its own boss as it sews, sewing a seam stronger than the fabric itself. To see it hem, fel, tuck, braid, cord, quilt and gather, it seems more like a thing of life than a machine moved by the will of the operator. It is capable of doing any description of sewing that is required in a family; and also for seamstresses and dressmakers it will be found invaluable. They seldom or never give any trouble in operating, and in a word, are the

MOST SATISFACTORY SEWING MACHINES IN USE.

Notwithstanding their great superiority, they are sold at prices as low as other first-class Machines. A Medallion likeness of Mr. Howe is imbedded in the plates of every Howe Machine, without which none are genuine. Every purchaser of a Sewing Machine, should inquire for Elias Howe, Jr.'s Sewing Machines, And if they are not sold in their vicinity, address the General Agency for Illustrated Circulars, etc., and do not purchase until you have thoroughly investigated these renowned machines.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given against incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and, indeed, as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it. Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it. Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. So generally are the certificates of their use, and so more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

WHEELER & WILSON.

THE GREAT TRIAL OF SEWING MACHINES.

THE GRANDEST IN THE WORLD.

The Judges, the whole world; and the trial fifteen years duration.

PRACTICAL USE THE TEST!

THE UNIVERSAL VERDICT:

"THE WHEELER and WILSON SEWING MACHINE THE CHAMPION!"

AS A HOLIDAY PRESENT NOTHING WOULD BE MORE APPRECIATED THAN ONE OF THESE MACHINES

THESE UNEQUALLED MACHINES DO ALL the different work required to be done in a family, and make all the different kinds of Stitches without the complications of other machines.

All persons will please examine the WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES before purchasing any other.

The Wheeler & Wilson as is well known, has won a nearly every trial in which it has competed the highest award of merit. The representatives of other machines, ever confident, have entered the lists, time and again, only to be defeated; and finding it impossible to compete fairly, have endeavored to deprecate the value of premiums. They are not slow, however, to boast of a few they have received. But in the grand trial, daily use throughout the world, where only true merit finds favor, and superiority wins the race, the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine stands triumphantly the Champion by the verdict of the people.

THESE MACHINES ARE ADAPTED TO EVERY VARIETY OF SEWING!

From the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloths. They work equally well upon Silk, Linen, Woolen or Cotton goods, with Silk, Linen or Cotton thread. Seaming, Quilting, Gathering, Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Braiding, Embroidering and making Button Holes, with the greatest facility.

If the inconvenient for the purchaser to visit the salesroom, the order may be forwarded to the office, and it will be faithfully filled as if the selection had been made personally.

Full instructions, recently compiled, and giving information upon every point in detail, accompany each machine, and enable the most inexperienced to operate without difficulty.

Our interest in the successful working of Machines is not second to that of the purchaser, and we esteem it a privilege to aid by correspondence or otherwise, any person requiring it.

Competition and opposition—fair and unfair—have not consumed or injured it. It stands the practical test upon a greater range of work than any other Family Sewing Machine in use.

There is ONE WITHIN A THOUSAND MILES OF SAN FRANCISCO NOT WORKING WELL, IF INFORMED OF IT, I WILL FIX IT FOR NOTHING, AND PAY ALL EXPRESS CHARGES.

Shoemakers, Tailors, and Glove-makers are invited to examine our New Florene Manufacturing Machine.
